

First of all, we can't imagine what you must be going through and we are beyond inspired by the love you have for your child. If you think we might be a possible fit, please know we will do everything we can to support you during this time. We are unable to have biological children and have always considered adoption as a choice for growing our family. We can't wait to share our love and passions with a child and give them every possible opportunity life has to offer. We also feel it is extremely important to never stop reminding them of where they came from and of your unconditional love.

About Us: We live in Gainesville, FL and have no children, but we are a little obsessed with our two rescue dogs, Coco and Franklin. We also love to travel anywhere around the world and can't wait to take our third amigo with us to experience exciting new lands. We always have food cooking in the kitchen and are lovers of anything to do with art and music. A perfect day would be taking a little one to the zoo or museum and ending with a live show. Of course we would stop for good food and ice cream along the way. We're also excited about spending time together at home snuggling on the couch watching a movie, or sharing the day's stories around the dinner table.

About Brian: Brian is a lawyer originally from New Orleans with an amazing sense of humor and adventure. He loves to read anything he can get his hands on or going to the theater for the new Star Wars or Avengers movie. He is laid back, kind, patient, and stable, giving those around him a sense of calm and safety. He's also a kid magnet and was born to be a father.

About Stacie: Stacie volunteers in the community and is the creative one in the family originally from North Carolina. She is goofy, nurturing, and absolutely loves to laugh. She loves making up songs for her dogs to calm them during thunderstorms – it actually works! She is always working on a new recipe, an art project or playing her piano, which she can't wait to teach her son or daughter one day. She was a professional dancer and singer in New York City and loves interior design and every single holiday – especially Christmas!

If you'd like to consider us, know that we aren't claiming to be perfect but we do have more love to give than we know what to do with. We can't wait to teach your child all we know while also getting the chance to see the world through their eyes. Rest assured that your child will always know they are loved and beautiful just the way they are. We hope to teach them to laugh a lot, speak their truth, and always be kind. We look forward to supporting them through life's exciting adventures and to always being beside them as they search to find their way. No matter who you choose, thank you for being such an amazing woman and mother. We don't know you but you are truly in our thoughts every single day.

Love and peace,
Stacie and Brian
